Toft for bond use to bring in K-Mart

by GLORIA DAVIS

The difference in being a candidate and occupying Antioch's top seat has already reared its head.

Last January, when newly-elected Mayor Ray Toft announced his candidacy, in speaking of one of the most controversial issues of the mayoral campaign, enticing a commercial complex to the village by offering them industrial bonds, he said that he was not adverse to new businesses coming to town as long as they were not financed by the sale of industrial bonds.

He added, "It's unfair to the rest of the merchants."

Now, with the prospect of a complex, featuring a K-Mart store on Rte. 83, being proposed by Developers Ramco-Gershenson, Inc., Farmington, Mich., he has changed his mind.

After doing a little checking, Toft now says, that he favors the use of industrial bonds to bring the complex to the village, if it is necessary.

"I don't think it will hurt the community because of the added revenue and jobs it will bring into it," he stated.

Knolls would benefit from new complex

by GLORIA DAVIS

Besides the fact the residents of Oakwood Knolls will have new shopping availability in their side yard, the subdivision will benefit in two more ways if the coming of the proposed K-Mart shopping complex on Rte. 83 becomes a reality.

According to Mayor Ray Toft, the existing surface water problem in the Knolls will be somewhat alleviated since the complex will have to put in an L-shaped drainage ditch, running along its frontage and a surface water retention pond.

Since the surface water in that area now drains toward the subdivision, the resulting elimination of it, because of the drainage facilities of the shopping center complex, will be a boon to the often water-logged area.

Todd Mapletorpe, Antioch's superintendent of water and sewers, said that the looping of the water lines extended to the area of the proposed complex and connected to the present deadend lines of the Knolls, will greatly improve the water quality of the subdivision.

Looped water lines produce a finer water quality than do deadend ones.

Recipe of the week

Freshen up with hot celery salad

With those gorgeous green stalks of celery so bountiful in the markets these days, there's absolutely no need to wait until summer to start thinking "salads."

Celery has so much going for it: that spring green color, crisp texture, high fiber and low calorie content. . . great to the taste and good to the waist! Abundance right now is the result of Florida shipments. Its growers supply more than half of our celery in winter and spring months.

How about a hot celery-tuna salad for tomorrow night's supper? It's prepared, baked and served all in the same casserole, and all you need to complete the meal is some crusty bread (heated in the oven at the same time) and a tangy bowl of mixed greens. You can make it in the morning before you leave for work, if you like, and bake it when you get home.

All you do is combine in a one-quart casserole sliced celery, canned tuna, mayonnaise, shredded cheddar, parsley and minced onion. Cover and refrigerate till later, or bake immediately — sprinkling the top of the casserole with a seasoned bread crumb mixture.

If you feel like rushing spring a little (and who doesn't this time of year?), here's a cool main-dish salad that's beautiful to look at and fits right in as the center of attraction at brunch, lunch or supper. Celery and Chicken Salad Orlando is a natural pairing of celery and chicken, along with tomato wedges and sliced avocado. The delectable dressing is made with red wine vinegar, oil, Worcestershire sauce and prepared mustard. Crumbled Roquefort cheese makes an added flavor touch.

Hot Celery-Tuna Salad

2½ cups thinly sliced Florida celery
2 cans (6 to 7 oz. each) tuna, drained and flaked
1 cup mayonnaise
½ cup shredded Cheddar cheese
¼ cup chopped fresh parsley

2 tablespoons minced onion
Paprika
¼ teaspoon salt
1/8 teaspoon ground black pepper
¼ cup dry bread crumbs
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
Preheat oven to 450 F. in a one quart casserole combine celery, tuna, mayonnaise, cheese, parsley, onion, ¾ teaspoon paprika, salt and black pepper. In a small bowl combine bread crumbs and butter; sprinkle over top of tuna mixture. Dust lightly with paprika. Bake, uncovered, until bubbling, 14 to 15 minutes. Serve for brunch, lunch or supper.
Yield: 4 to 6 portions

Celery and Chicken Salad Orlando

1 stalk (bunch) Florida celery
2/3 cup salad oil
¼ cup red wine vinegar
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
1 teaspoon prepared mustard
2 cups cooked, diced chicken (12 oz.)
Lettuce

2 medium-sized ripe tomatoes, cut in wedges
1 small ripe avocado, peeled and sliced
½ cup (2 oz.) Roquefort cheese, crumbled (optional)

Remove stem end from celery and separate into ribs. Remove leaves and thinly slice ribs to make 2½ cups (use the remaining in salad, soups, stuffings, stews, etc.); set aside. In a medium bowl combine oil, vinegar, salt, Worcestershire sauce and mustard. Stir in chicken and reserved celery; cover and refrigerate one hour.

Line a large serving platter with lettuce leaves. Drain chicken and celery mixture from dressing (reserve dressing). Place celery and chicken in the center of platter. Arrange a row of tomatoes and avocado around the edge. Sprinkle with Roquefort cheese and serve with reserved dressing.
Yield: 4 to 6 portions

Gold star members honored

Marion Brown, 10th District President of the American Legion Auxiliary and some of her officers joined members of Antioch Unit 748 recently in honoring their Gold Star Members.

Brown thanked, the Antioch Unit for reaching, 100 percent membership, saying it was through the efforts of all the Units that the 10th District has gone over the 100 percent mark.

Members were happy to hear Illini Girl State Chairman, Sue Rathmann, was informed that Darcy Lee Krahn of Antioch is candidate for the 1981 session at MacMurray College in Jacksonville, June 21 to June 27.

Illini Girls State is a mythical state, patterned after our Illinois governmental procedures. More than 500 High School Juniors learn through actual practice the duties and functions of city, county and state government.

When I Think About It Pessimism 'ain't all that bad!

By GLORIA DAVIS

I think that I've told you before that I am, have been and will always be, an incurable pessimist.

My mother tells me that I was the kind of baby that made a face before the spoon-shaped "airplane" came flying at my mouth, always expecting it to be spinach even when the outcome was sweet applesauce or pudding.

I was the kind of kid that never asked for toys because I just knew that they'd only get broken.

When I got to be a teenager and a darling boy that I had a yen for asked me out, I stopped liking him because "if he asked me out he really isn't such-a-much!"

When I get a compliment, my first thought is still that I really must have looked really bad before for them not to notice.

And I still have a hard time not answering one with, "what did you mean by that."

When I was younger, whenever I'd hear the song "Someday He'll Come Along, the Man I Love," I figured I'd probably be out to lunch.

And as the years went by and I found myself still waiting for my "ship to come in," I came to the conclusion that with my luck the day those long waited for sails were sighted in the harbor, I'd probably be at the airport.

When my four children were teenagers and flitting hither and yon in cars all weekend, I spent my Friday and Saturday evenings running to the door to see which way the rescue Squad was heading.

To this day I don't know why I did that. With four of them on the road, there was bound to be one in each direction.

I always take an umbrella and raincoat on vacations to "the land of sun and fun" and I don't take my skis on a ski weekend, not because I think the snow will melt as I arrive but to discourage the broken leg that I know lurks behind each mogul.

At work, when I hear that someone made a really big mistake, I immediately start composing my apology and thinking up excuses, certain that I did it.

The moral of this entire thing is that instead of being a cockeyed optimist I have found that being a pop-eyed pessimist isn't so bad, since things are never as bleak as you expect them to be.

It seems that every worry line in my brow has been paid for because I seldom break my toys anymore and I was home when that special guy came around. I never broke a leg skiing, just an ankle.

I've never seen those profitable sails but I've also remained unspoiled by money. Those flashing red lights were never for anyone I knew and I learned to be a pretty good card player, especially during the rain.

Maybe not accepting the horse because I didn't want to clean up after it was better than shoveling through the manure to find the pony.

P.S., I still use a pencil with a good eraser on it when I work crossword puzzles.

Woman's Club Installs

A most delicious lunch and enjoyable afternoon was spent by the Antioch Womans Club at their closing luncheon at the Harbor Ridge Country Club on May 4.

Lillie Petty were made honorary members.

The new officers for the coming year were installed by Janet Brook: President, Mrs. Alfred Pedersen; Vice President, Mrs. Sherman St. Pierre; Recording Secretary, Mrs. James McLellen; Corresponding Secretary, Mrs. Donald Skidmore; Treasurer, Mrs. Lester Zitkus.

VFW Auxiliary plans Poppy Day, May 29-30

On May 29 and 30, the red crepe paper poppy will be offered to the public by the American Legion Auxiliary.

This reminder of the sacrifice of countless thousands in four wars is an annual event undertaken by the members of Unit No. 748, Antioch.

Volunteers from the unit will once again take part in this nation-wide program in memory of the citizen soldiers who gave their lives in the cause of freedom.

Funds collected on Poppy Day are used to assist the needy veteran and his family. It is a self-help program, for the auxiliary's familiar red paper poppy is hand-made in poppy shops run by the auxiliary volunteers.

In these shops, disabled and hospitalized veterans make the flowers by hand, petal by petal. It is part of a physical and psychological therapy program by veterans for veterans.

These poppies are purchased from the shop by the auxiliary and offered to the public, not at a price, but for a contribution, a few cents to say America remembers.

This memorial flower was adopted by the American Legion Auxiliary in 1920 and since that time, programs have been conducted throughout the United States each year.

Contributions made on Poppy Day are used by the local unit to aid needy veterans and their families in the community and in hospitals throughout the state.

All proceeds are channeled directly into rehabilitation and welfare work for children and youth.

Allendale dedicates new outdoor pavillion

Thursday, May 14, saw the dedication of a new addition to the Allendale School. The Boys' Shelter Club of Illinois, a long standing auxiliary of the Allendale School, dedicated, in memory of Mrs. Gerry Shearer Welles, an outdoor pavilion.

The Welles Pavilion is located on the east edge of the Allendale property, overlooking beautiful Cedar Lake.

Allendale is a residential, therapeutic, educational treatment center, which has provided a school-home type learning environment for troubled youth since 1897.

It has proudly served over 4,000 boys since its founding by Cap Bradley, a young Princeton graduate interested in the plight of urban youth, and the poor conditions under which they lived.

Between the years of 1897 and 1915, the main campus was constructed, consisting of a gymnasium, chapel, library, learning center, main office, and six large residential homes.

Most of these fine buildings exist today.

In 1969 and 1972, three residential homes were built, and in 1978, a modern food service center was constructed.

The School is unique in that it is an Illinois State Board of Education approved, private education program, and is also an Illinois licensed child welfare agency.

Allendale serves a population of youth who experience failure in the classroom, rejection in the home, and get into trouble in the community.

The organization is directed by a board of trustees comprised of 36 men and women, representing various religions and creeds.

A dynamic staff of competent professionals administer the School's programs. In addition to the administrative and support services personnel, the staff consists of trained special educators, registered psychologists, master degreed social workers, and well trained child care personnel, who are available around the clock, seven days per week, in order to produce more Allendale graduates — who can lead productive and happy lives.

The Shelter Club, in a response to the school's director, Robert Holway, decided on the pavilion as a fitting tribute to the many years of service to the Shelter by Mrs. Welles.

The pavilion will serve both in the summer and winter as a haven for boys who fish, swim, boat, ice skate and play hockey on picturesque Cedar Lake.

It is constructed of fine timbers and sports a beautiful 10 foot wide double fireplace. One half of the fireplace provides for cooking, the other for heat.

Robert Holway, executive director of education at Allendale accepted the Welles Pavilion on behalf of the Allendale Assn.

Toft for bond use

While still advocating the acquisition of more parking for the existing shopping area and remaining behind the possibility of a mall-like atmosphere to be created by putting connecting doors from some stores to others, he says that he now thinks that the coming of the complex might help boost the lagging downtown businesses by adding more shopping traffic to the area.

He added that sales are already down, with sales tax revenues having fallen 16 percent, or $60,000 from 1979 to 1980.

With inflationary price factors figured in, Toft says the loss in unit sales is even greater since every item has suffered a price hike during that same time.

Taking the lowering of the economy into consideration, but also finding out that the surrounding towns of Lake Villa, Fox Lake and the rest of Lake County, have either suffered much smaller losses or gained more revenues, Toft now thinks that this shows that many people from Antioch could already be shopping out of town.

He feels that if the complex's developers ask for the bond break to cut their interest rates, and are refused it, they will locate outside the village.

Rte. 173 in the township, has reportedly already been under consideration.

Then Toft added, "The downtown merchants will have the same competition without the added revenues coming to the village and the schools."

So far industrial bonds have not been mentioned in the complex's negotiations, but Toft expects them to be a prime consideration in its advent.

Toft, who was not as vociferously against the use of industrial bonds during the campaign as were candidates Bruce Jablonski and Bob Wilton, both downtown merchants (Wilton in the process), says he still thinks the need for more industry in the village is extremely necessary since two were lost in the last year.

But, with the need for added village revenue in mind, "If we are going to do all the things that are necessary," there is an increased need for more housing starts in the village.

There were no new houses built in the village of Antioch during 1980 but neighboring Lake Villa, during the same economic lag, added seven new single family dwellings.

In Lake Villa Township, 27 family residences were erected, while Antioch Township added only 18 new units.

Food sales were up 11 percent in 1980 in Lake Villa, down 13 percent in Lake County and while Fox Lake also suffered a $72,000 decline in food sales, they were down by $146,000 or 23 percent in Antioch.

Will the additional 150 jobs and the draw from new shopping opportunities added to the possibility of the building of new homes and more money to spend mean an improvement in the village's total sales figures? Toft seems to think so.

If the additional traffic adds to, or maintains, the revenues brought in by the existing businesses, the answer is obvious.

Besides the fact that many of Antioch's merchants fear for their business lives, there is also the thought that if the addition of a shopping complex helps to destroy the downtown area, as has happened in many Lake County municipalities, will the cut into the revenue already brought in by those merchants exceed the income gained by the addition of the complex?

More pros and cons on this issue are expected in the meetings and public hearings to come.

DOT changes speed limit

The Illinois Dept. of Transportation, (IDOT) has informed Police Chief Chuck Miller, of the Antioch Police Dept., that a traffic and engineering speed study, conducted on Rte. 83, between Rte. 173 and Grimm Rd., has indicated that the present 40 mph speed limit should be lowered to 30 mph.

Miller has been further informed that sign revisions have been scheduled and will take place as soon as possible.

IDOT says the anticipated violation rate in the new 30 mph speed zone will be 70 percent and asks that increased selective enforcement be provided to ensure that the new limits will be observed.

Miller says that most of this area is in the village limits and that his department will cooperate fully in enforcing the new speed limits.

Parade set for Memorial Day

The Antioch VFW and the American Legion will hold a Memorial Day Parade at 10 a.m., on Monday, May 25, starting from Antioch Community High School and going down Main St.

The Time Machine

50 YEARS AGO: MAY 21, 1931

John Tellaisha, from Allendale, a junior at the Antioch High School, was awarded second place in the Illinois state championship contest for violinists held at Normal Friday. He was accompanied on the piano by Miss Mildred Robinson. John is instructed by W. G. Bragg. For several years he has shown outstanding talent, having been given prominent position in the state orchestra for two years and last year was recommended by Director Raymond Dvorak to attend the National Orchestra camp at Interlochen, Mich.

Certainty that Frank Kamin, a suspect in the Burlington Meinhardt State Bank robbery, will recover from the bullet wounds received as he was fleeing from Burlington, has led authorities to arrange that he be taken to the Racine County jail as soon as he is able to be released from St. Catherine's Hospital. Two other suspects, Reinhold and Michael Fleuker, pleaded not guilty.

A small roof fire, caused by sparks issuing from the kitchen chimney of the Antler's hotel was immediately extinguished by the Antioch Fire Department before any serious damage had been done. The fire was over the hotel dining room.

Services for Antioch's "fine old man," Edgar Booth Williams, were held Sunday afternoon at the M.E. church in the presence of throngs of friends, who deeply regret his loss. Dr. Bradley, pastor of the People's Church in Chicago, gave an inspiring delivery.

30 YEARS AGO: MAY 17, 1951

The usual banquet will give way to a buffet supper this year at the Junior Prom of the Antioch High School Saturday evening. The supper will be served at 9 p.m. and the coronation will be at 10:30 p.m. Avis Ring will be crowned queen by George Swenson, president of the Junior class in the presence of her attendants, Virginia Van Patten, Sue Garland, Denise Chrisop, and Natalie Shippmann. George Nelson, king, will be crowned by Janice Runyard, last years prom queen.

Robert Kufalk, will receive his Associate in Arts degree from Kendall College, Evanston. Mr. Kufalk is president of the Student Council and Co-Captain of the basketball team. He has also been a member of the softball team and a school representative on the Deputation teams and also received the Sportsmanship award voted him by members of the Athletic Club.

While Bob Wilton's back was turned someone stole a Hoover vacuum cleaner from his electrical store Monday. Wilton had four Hoovers in the front of the store and when he closed the store at night one was missing.

10 YEARS AGO: MAY 20, 1971

Antioch High School Fine Arts department had their annual awards night. Receiving the Arion Award (Choir) was Cheryl Patterson and to Ronald Turzy went the Sousa. The outstanding actor was Bryan Sorenson. Mr. Rush, director of the instrumental groups, will be leaving after 13 years in this position.

Characters from Mother Goose came to life Wednesday, May 12, at the Mother-Daughter banquet at St. Stephen Lutheran Church. Costumes for the event were designed and created by the children playing the nursery rhyme roles and helped by their mothers.

Museum needs go-ahead

The idea of turning the original Antioch School building at Main and Depot Sts. into a community historical museum has been an on and off topic for three years or more. The proposal generally has been well received. It is high time that community leaders marshal their interest and resources, and bring the plan to fruition.

Officials of Antioch Grade School went so far as to meet with village board members last December for a formal discussion on how the landmark school building could legally be transferred to the village which would become the legal entity charged with the responsibility of operation and maintenance. A lease arrangement at a cost of $1 per year to the village was proposed as the means of transfer. Again, there was general agreement that the venerable structure could be preserved and utilized in that manner.

A strenuous election intervened, however, so the transfer never was consummated. Now Supt. Donald Skidmore has sent a letter to Mayor Ray Toft seeking an official expression of the newly constituted village council about accepting responsibility to take over the building which in its early days also housed Antioch's first high school.

Dr. Skidmore expressed the personal desire that a three-way meeting take place in the near future, bringing together representatives of the school district, village board and Antioch Historical Society. We sincerely hope such a meeting takes place and we urge the proper representatives to get together as soon as possible.

There is no doubt that the historical society could develop a museum that would become a local resource, a center of significant historical interest and an object of community pride. Another suggestion that has come to our ears in recent days is that space could be rented to the Antioch Chamber of Commerce and Industry for its office. This sounds like an idea worth exploring and is an example of how the old, but still sturdy building could continue to serve the community in a variety of ways.

Antioch time and again has demonstrated its intense community pride. Antioch also cares about its heritage. Pride and heritage could be focalized at the museum. In an era when grants are drying up and the dole is on the wane, it looks like the museum project, if it is to be undertaken, will have to be accomplished with funds generated within the community. We think that can be done and The Antioch News pledges to help the museum cause in any way possible.

A number of years have passed since the old school was used for classroom purposes. Until the museum idea was advanced, the building was used for storing school materials. Now the school materials have been transferred and the building stands empty, ready for a new career. As Dr. Skidmore observed, it would be a shame to have to tear down the old school, still structurally sound and useful, if no one wanted it. Let's get together and show that our grand old school edifice still is wanted. Get the museum plan going again.

REAL STORY

Editor:

In answers to Gloria Davis's article on Sexual Harassment that appeared in May 4th's Antioch News, here's the real story on sexual harassment.

Sexual harassment has been a common problem of working women for decades. Surveys have shown that 70-75 percent of working women have been victims of sexual harassment sometime during their careers.

This issue has only recently surfaced in public debate, and many misconceptions still exist.

The following definition of sexual harassment was developed by the National Organization for Women and the Working Women's Institute.

"Sexual harassment is any repeated or unwarranted verbal or physical sexual advances, sexually derogatory statements, or sexually discriminatory remarks made by someone in the work place which is offensive or objectionable to the recipient or which causes the recipient discomfort or humiliation or which interferes with the recipient's job performance.

Sexual harassment includes a wide range of unwanted and unwarranted, sexually directed behavior including rape, other physical or verbal abuse.

Oftentimes it is accompanied by threats of adverse job actions or promises of raises or promotions.

Women are the victims, not the guilty party of sexual harassment. Although it has taken decades, people now realize that women are not raped because they were "asking for it" or because they were wearing seductive clothing. . . This same myth must now be destroyed when dealing with sexual harassment.

When exploring the problem of sexual harassment, it is important to distinguish between compliments on someone's appearance and sexual remarks. There is a difference between your boss saying that you look nice in your new dress/suit and him saying that you should take your new dress/suit off.

There is a difference between acting in a professional manner and acting like an uncontrollable animal.

Unfortunately, a negative attitude towards harassment does not guarantee that this type of unprofessional behavior will stop.

Sexual harassment is a serious problem for women who work outside the home. It is important to educate women on how to deal with harassment and to educate employers on how to develop policies to deal with this problem.

It is equally important, however, to educate those who can put an end to this problem, men who harass, and let them know that their behavior is inappropriate and wrong.

Let's place the blame on the creators, not the victims of sexual harassment.

AARP meetings will move to VFW barn

Dolly Spiering, president of the Antioch Chapter 387 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) opened the May 12 meeting with the pledge of allegiance and the singing of "God Bless America" at the Antioch Area Senior Center, 817 Holbek Dr.

FRANCES TOMASIK reported that 131 members were present with seven celebrating their birthdays in May. The traditional "Happy Birthday" was sung to them and "Happy Anniversary" to the anniversary celebrants.

Blanche Babik reported that the club had 239 paid up members. She said she mailed out 42 letters to members who were in arrears and only seven answered.

Anyone who has not paid their dues by June 1 of this year will no longer be considered a member of the chapter. There is a waiting list for people who would like to join the association.

MRS. SPIERING announced that her husband, Clarence, had been operated on that morning for cataracts. The members wished him a good recovery.

Larry Klimas reported on the AARP workshop that was held May 8.

John Wenclawski, legislative chairman, reported on the forum held in Milwaukee in April. He spoke of the cuts being made in Social Security, rent subsidies, etc. He asked the members to write to their congressmen and senators to do something about oil, credit cards and inflation.

Mayor Raymond Toft of Antioch and Jim Fields, Antioch Township supervisor were guests. They both said they couldn't promise to get anything done about the noise at the senior center, or the size, but they will work on it. Fields said he would work with the architect and engineer about enlarging the center, although there is no money available at this time.

MAYOR TOFT said they could go to the VFW barn on North Ave., if that is what they want. The members voted unanimous to move, until the senior center building could be enlarged and the acoustics taken care of. Both gentlemen said the rent would be taken care of for the VFW barn. There are only two more meetings for this session, so they will continue to meet at the senior center for May 28 and June 9.

Frances and Bill Tomasik conducted the nomination of officers. A few members declined the nomination. The final slate of officers is as follows: President, Mrs. Cecile Mann; Vice President, John Bednarkiewicz; Second Vice President, Esther Aiani and Clara Haley; Treasurer, Chester Schultz; Secretary, Ann Gialds, second term; three year trustees with two to be elected, John Babik, Glen Peterson, Frances Tomasik and Ruth Rydners. Election will be held at the June 9 meeting.

Glen Peterson and John Babik sold tickets for the June 23 Installation Dinner at the Windjammer

Restaurant in Antioch. Also tickets for the June 25 picnic at the Lake Villa Township Park. And tickets for a dinner-theater outing on July 1 to Woodstock. See them at the next meeting if you are interested in purchasing tickets.

Several members didn't receive cake with their sandwich as two members who should have brought cakes didn't attend or call to say they wouldn't be able to bring a cake. Anyone who is asked to bring cake or other food, and won't be able to do it, are asked to notify a board member or Mrs. Broadbent.

EDUCATORS MEET — Deep in discussion at meeting of feeder grade schools, held at Antioch High School, are grade school representatives, center, Tom Merkel, president St. Peters board and Richard Becker, president Emmons Grade School board.

'Night of the Iguana' Park plans events to open on May 30 for July 4 fun

Tennessee Williams' haunting and controversial "The Night of the Iguana" will open next week at the PM&L Theater, 877 Main Street in Antioch.

The first performance of this gripping play is set for Saturday night, May 30.

Following presentations will take place on Friday and Saturday nights: June 5, 6, 12 and 13.

There will also be a matinee on Sunday afternoon, June 7. Curtain time is 8:30 p.m. for the evening shows and 2:30 p.m. for the Sunday matinee.

A new feature of PM&L's current Season 20, the Sunday afternoon show is enjoying growing acceptance in the theater schedule. Many playgoers who have not found it possible or convenient to go to the theater on Friday and Saturday nights have appreciated increasingly the Sunday matinee.

"The Night of the Iguana" is set in the 1940s at the less-than-posh Costa Verde Hotel at Puerto Barrio on the west coast of Mexico.

The cast features the types of deadbeats and failures who have long been dear to Tennessee Williams: Shannon, a defrocked priest, played by Lou Jones of Round Lake; the widowed hotel manager, Ann Marie Cina, McHenry; an ancient minor-league poet, Tom Hausman, Antioch; and his spinster granddaughter, Kris Ann Miller, Antioch.

All are thrown together at the tumble-down Costa Verde at a time of crisis in their lives.

The PM&L production is directed by Barbara D. Miller. Supporting the principal players is a talented and gifted cast which includes Donna O'Donnell of Lake Villa; Cris Wilson, Salem; Lillian Allen, Trevor; Bob Anderson, Kenosha; Don Beveroth, Paddock Lake; and, from Antioch, Bob McKee, David Carlson, Dawn Champly, Tracy Kiederlin and George Blanksten.

"The Night of the Iguana" has all of the makings of another PM&L hit. To be assured of your chance to see it, you should call 395-3055 for your reservations.

Also, remember to be at the PM&L box office by 8:15 p.m. on the night, or 2:15 p.m. on the afternoon, you plan to see this much-discussed play, which is regarded by many critics as Tennessee Williams' best work.

Antioch Parks and Recreation is sponsoring an old-fashioned Fourth parade, picnic and fireworks, July 4th with a rain date of July 5. They are hoping to make it an annual event and with community help and spirit expect to see it a huge success.

The basic plans for the day include: parade, 11 a.m.; a picnic in Williams Park following the parade.

The picnic includes: booths with food and drink to any organization or person wanting to have one giving twenty percent of the sales to parks and recreation.

A Pepsi-Cola Hotshot contest, greased pole, kissing booth, pie eating contest, beard contest, clown face drawing, open swim, swim show, bands, music, clowns.

At 7 p.m. the Miss Antioch Pageant will be immediately followed by fireworks.

Citizens committees will be set up to handle the different aspects of this function and the meeting will be held at the Old Fire Station at 7 p.m. on May 20.

Many people and organizations willing to give a hand are needed in this event.

If there are any questions, please call Chairman Claudette Skvarce, 395-6744 or Co-chairman Glenda Tomaschik or Dee Lang, 395-2160, between 9 a.m. and 4:30 p.m.

Band plays to packed house

The Antioch Lower Grade School's Spring Band Concert played Wednesday, May 13, to a packed house. The Beginning and Intermediate Bands played a variety of popular songs under the direction of Linda Schotka.

The highlight of the beginning band's program was a number using many of our favorite nursery rhymes.

Old McDonald was Mandy Sherman, the lamb was Jennifer Bivona, the dog was Jenny Biaggi, the weasel was Denise Bosk, the fly was Ross Noethling and the Old Gray Mare was Kate Stack.

The three young ladies who played the Three Blind Mice left before their names could be taken. Denise Bosk played "Happy Birthday" to a beaming father.

The intermediate band played a selection of popular songs including the Theme from "Mash"; "Star Trek"; "The Motion Picture"; "Over The Rainbow"; "Bad Leroy Brown" and "Boogie Woogie Bugle Call."

After bowing to Grant, Sequoits take Rams

Antioch's varsity baseball team has a conference record of 5-6 and an overall record of 11-12, going into regional play, slated to start at Round Lake on Tuesday, May 19.

That record is after the two games played this week and without the results of the game to be played against Warren, at Warren, on Monday, May 18.

Grant took the Sequoits 3-1, on Wednesday, May 13, with Antioch's lone run scored by Steve Sheedlo, who led off the sixth inning with a walk, advanced to second by an error by Grayslake's third baseman and scored on base hit by Carl Amundsen.

The only other good hit was a double by Mark Pomaczak in the second inning, leading nowhere.

Grant scored in the second, third and fifth innings.

Although the Sequoit bats were't in good working order, Antioch's Roy Raven did some good pitching, giving up four hits, striking out seven and walking one.

It was a different story on Saturday, May 16, when Antioch played the Monday rain-out at Grayslake, taking the Rams 5-2.

Winning pitcher was junior, Amundsen. Tim Koesser did some throwing for the first time since April 6, working two innings, facing 10 batters.

Koesser struck out four, gave up two walks and was credited with a save when he faced down the tying run at the plate.

Amundsen, who pitched five innings, gave up one run, four hits, struck out two and walked one.

Coach Tom Baba credits most of Antioch's runs to poor pitching by Grayslake.

If the Sequoits take Round Lake on Tuesday, they will face second seeded Zion on Thursday, May 21.

From there it's the semi-finals at Waukegan West on Saturday, May 23, and the championship game on Monday, May 25.

Baba says, "We're hoping to get a little more hitting and that the pitching stays consistent."

Sophs break winning streak

The Antioch sophomore baseball team saw loads of action this past week by playing seven games in seven days and seeing themselves climb into first place, only to be knocked out of it again.

It all began on May 2 against Waukegan East. Vince Gaweiecki pitched the first game of a double header and won by a score of 10-3.

In the game, an injury to center fielder Lester Zitkus, a member of the pitching rotation, later proved to be the Sequoits downfall.

The second game saw Tony Evans on the mound leading the Sequoits to a 13-5 win.

Zitkus injury in the first game coupled with pitcher Tom Adams broken finger, which occurred early during the week, left the Sequoits with just two pitchers entering a five game week.

The sophomores started on a good note beating Round Lake by a score of 14-5.

They continued the next day with a 6-3 win over

Warren, which set the stage for a battle against unbeaten Wauconda.

Wauconda had previously beaten Antioch this year and the Sequoits had been preparing for this game for several weeks.

Gaweiecki led the team pitching by giving up only six hits, allowing no runs, striking out three and walking three.

At the plate Antioch had hitting from Jerry Halling, one for three; Brad Herbst, two for three; Gaweiecki, two for three; Derrick Olsen, one for two; Bobby Reynolds, two for four; Mike Burnett, two for four; and Mike Evans, two for three.

The Sequoits walked off the field with a well earned 11-0 win.

The teams jubilation quickly ended the next day, as they were beaten by last placed Grant, by a score of 5-4.

On Friday, May 8, the team traveled to Stevenson High School and beat the Patriots by a score of 4-0.

The team now stands in second place, one game behind Wauconda with five league games left to be played.

Banquet to honor ACHS senior athletes

THE ANTIOCH Lions Club is sponsoring the Athletic Banquet, Wednesday, May 27. This is the 40th year for the Antioch Lions Club sponsorship of a banquet honoring the high school athletes. This year's banquet is to honor the senior boy and girl athletes, as well as the senior cheerleaders, pom-pom, color guard, senior marching band members, most valuable athletes, and individual State Final qualifiers in our 17 sport areas. The affair will be at 6:45 p.m. in the commons and cafeteria.

The senior athletes, senior special invited groups, the most valuables, and their sponsors and coaches will be guests of the club. Each teen guest is encouraged to bring a father, a mother or an adult guest. The club would like to limit the adult guest to one since there is limited seating. Tickets will be available at the door at a cost of $6.

The Lions Club and guests will hear Mr. Jerry Ippoliti, assistant athletic director at Northern Illinois University, as the guest speaker. Mr. Ippoliti graduated from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio in 1958. He lettered three years in football as an offensive and defensive back. He played for Coach Ara Parseghian on three Mid-America Conference Championship teams.

Ippoliti coached some eight years in Ohio High Schools and produced ten All-State athletes, two of which went on to play pro ball. He was offensive coordinator at Northern before being named Varsity Football Coach at Northern for five years.

IPPOLITI'S teams were always competitive and he was able to develop the first winning team as a Division I football school at NIU. He had the best record in a 14 year span at NIU, a 7-4 season.

Eleven of Ippoliti's college players at Northern became NFL pros, with one becoming all pro. At one time Ippoliti was a part time scout for the Dallas Cowboys.

Girl's softball team has winning record

The Antioch Community High School frosh-soph girls softball team has a record of 14-4 with two games left in the season.

Since April 23, wins have been recorded against Richmond, 22-5; Stevenson, 16-3; Lake Zurich, 19-9; Grayslake, 40-0; Mundelein, 15-5 and 20-15; and Round Lake, 13-3.

Losses have been to McHenry, 14-4 and Grant, 7-6.

The girls played their best game of the year in the win over conference contender and previously unbeaten Lake Zurich.

In the loss to Grant, a team they had previously beaten by the 10-run rule also a conference contender, lack of the usual hitting was a factor.

Antioch's conference is now 9-1.

Powerful hitting by the whole team as well as a super attitude have been the keys to Antioch's success on the softball diamond this season.

Steitz Olympics planned

Carole reports

No relief from mosquitoes but seniors may get aid

by CAROLE RISKA

The Antioch Township Board of Trustees, at the request of several citizens from Channel Lake, requested cost estimates from Clark Outdoor Spray Co. regarding a mosquito abatement program for the township.

This is an issue that has come up in the past and there are divided opinions regarding the subject.

On one hand there are the environmentalists who feel that the program would disturb the balance of nature, and on the other hand there are citizens who feel that it is more important that they be able to enjoy being outdoors without the pesky annoyance of mosquitoes.

But unfortunately for those with the second opinion a mosquito control program will not be put into effect, not because the board of trustees has taken a stand on either side, but because of the high cost of such a program.

Just to initiate a mosquito control program would cost $8,670 and it would cost $1,035 to spray on a weekly basis.

For maximum effect 15 weeks is recommended by Clarke Outdoor Spray, for a total of $24,195.

The costs are high due to the fact that we have a great deal of wetland and because of the lakes.

A large portion of the spraying would have to be done by helicopter or plane. After a short discussion at the monthly township meeting the board agreed that the cost of a mosquito abatement program is at this time beyond the township financial means.

Based on a chore aid program for senior citizens that is currently in effect in Morton Grove, I made a proposal in April at the monthly township meeting, that Antioch Township consider providing a similar program for our senior citizens.

The program would assist senior citizens with routine outdoor jobs such as grass cutting, hedge trimming etc.

Jobs that they may be finding difficult to do for themselves. The cost would be paid for by the township.

Township Supervisor Jim Fields stated that a chore aid program for seniors will go through, but not as extensively as he had originally considered because of a cut back in federal funds. He said that there are further details still to be worked out.

Everybody's property tax bills are going to be late due to Springfield's asking for additional information. Look for the bills to be about three weeks late.

Earl Quirk was named by Antioch Township's Board of Trustees as interim Antioch Township Road Commissioner to fill the vacancy left by Blaine Ring's untimely death.

When asked if he was going to run for the job when the time comes, Earl said "he would like to try the job out first." Earl worked for the township under Blaine for 16 years.

For all young people who are facing new worlds after graduation this spring, remember these words.

If you think you are beaten, you are

If you think that you dare not, you don't

If you'd like to win, but you think you can't

It's almost certain you won't

If you think you'll lose, you've lost

For out in the world you'll find

Success begins with a fellow's will,

It's all in the state of mind.

If you think you are out-classed, you are

You've got to think high to rise,

You've got to be sure of yourself before

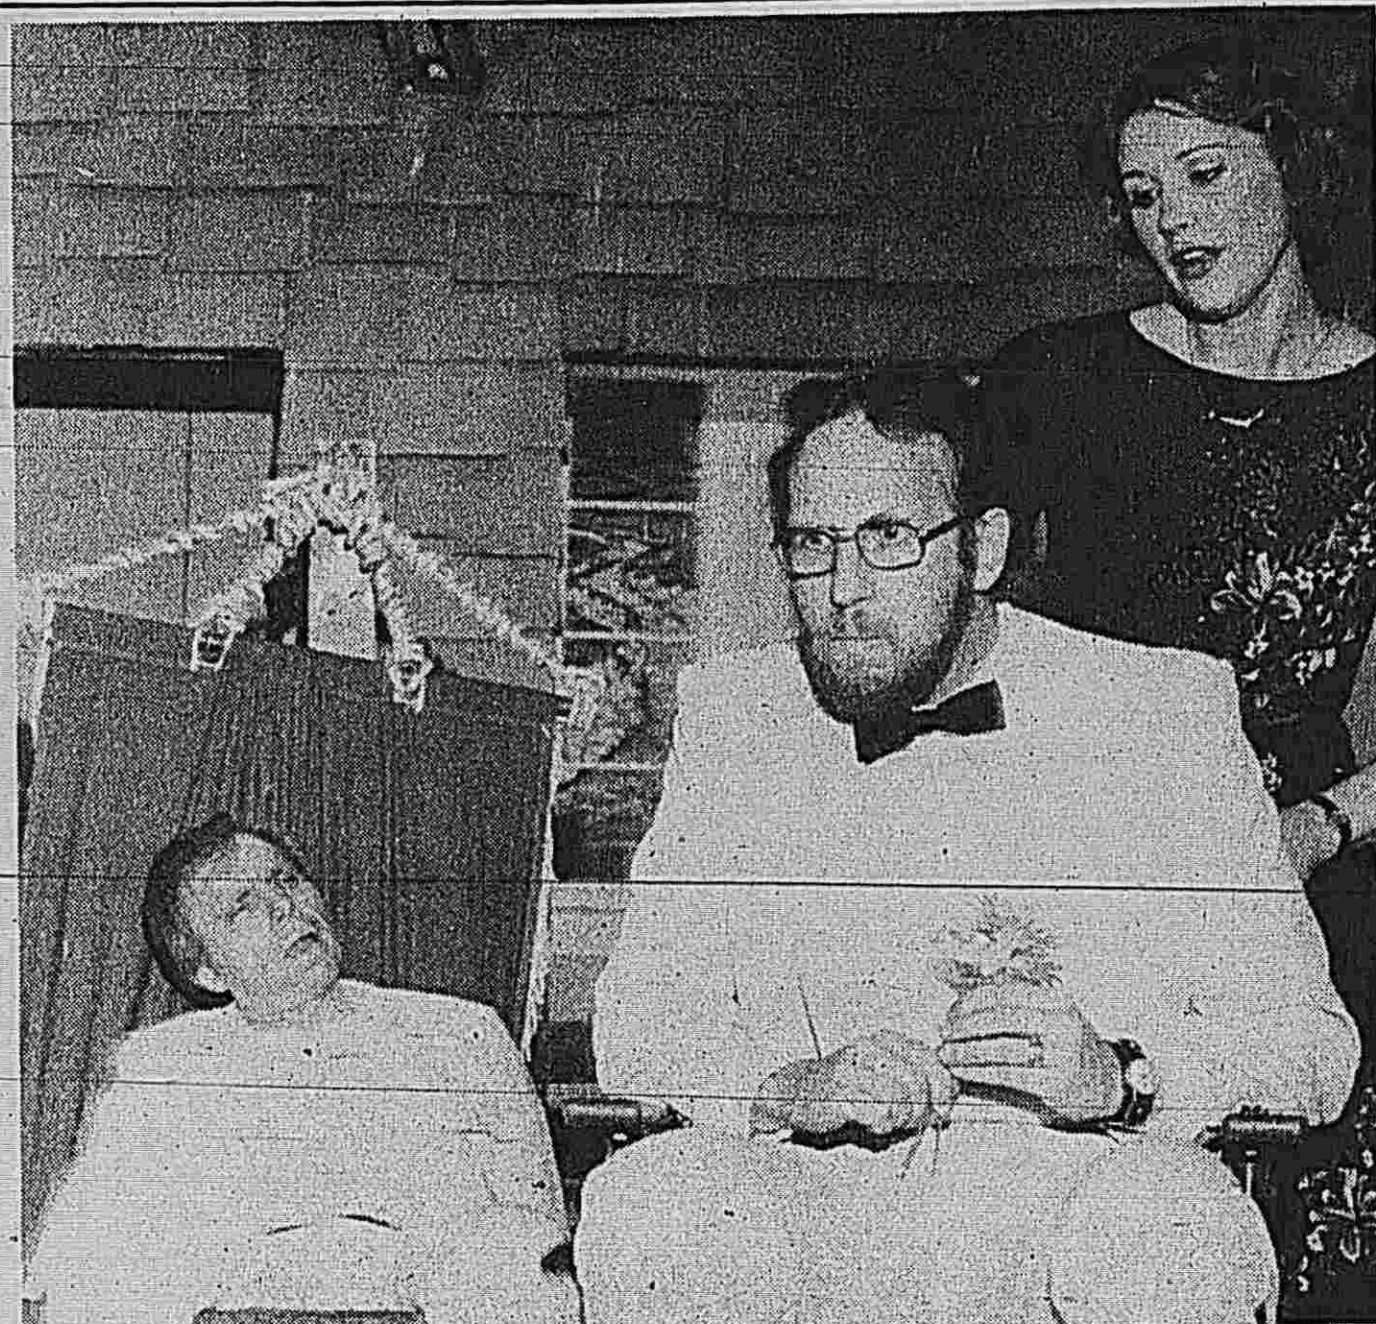

You can ever win a prize.

Life's battles don't always go

To the stronger or faster man,

But soon or late the man who wins

Is the man who thinks he can.
